Samuel Applebaum Annual Concert

May 1, 2011

FOUNDER	Dear Members, Musicians and Friends,	February, 2011
Samuel Applebaum*	As president and on behalf of the board I would like to welcome you all to the 30th season of the SOMA orchestra. Our gala free concert is on Sunday, May 1st at 3 PM at the Maplewood Municipal Building, 574 Valley Street, Maplewood, NJ.
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
OFFICERS	We are excited to welcome back world-class violist Michael Tree , of the Guarneri Quartet, and the son of our founder, Dr. Sam Applebaum. Michael Tree will present the enchanting Max Bruch Romanze for Viola and Orchestra. Our program also features the fanfare A Festive Violet Pulse , by Pittsburgh composer Nancy Galbraith; Dvorak's Overture In Nature's Realm ; and Mendelssohn's Third Symphony The Scottish . We are also delighted to welcome back Stephen Culbertson as our Conductor and Musical Director.

Edward Appel Benjamin Perlmutter Past Presidents	The Society of Musical Arts was formed in 1981 by the late Dr. Samuel Applebaum, New Jersey's Master String Teacher, prolific composer of over 400 teaching manuals and writer of the famous books on How They Play . SOMA's board and orchestra are carrying on Dr. Applebaum's dream of free public concerts in Essex County, with multi-generational appeal, presented by local amateur and professional musicians.
Freda Garnett Vice President
Peggy Reynolds Treasurer	Your support is very important to us. With your donation we will be able to continue offering our fine concerts free to the public. Young families will be able to share in listening to live classical music without the stress of costly concert tickets. We urge everyone to continue their membership in the Society of Musical Arts by making a tax deductible contribution of $20.00 per person or $30.00 per family. Any additional contribution would be greatly appreciated. As a donor, your name will be listed in our program.
